Overview

Only a few locations can guarantee the right combination of resources that are crucial to your business's success. Virginia's premier location offers excellent domestic and international access. Centrally located on the U.S. East Coast, more than 47 percent of the U.S. population is within a day's drive, and our integrated transportation system of highways, railroads, airports and seaports ensures that you can reach every one of your markets efficiently. Close proximity to Washington, D.C. facilitates contact with policy makers and the federal government system.

Virginia continues to rank among America's leading states for business by CNBC and Forbes.com. Business-first values, easy access to markets, stable and competitive operating costs, and a talented workforce all drove Virginia to the top. This unique combination of assets has encouraged businesses to prosper here for more than 400 years. Like you, they searched the world over for that convergence of resources that would help ensure their prosperity. For them, their search ended here. Chances are yours will too.

- AAA bond rating- Virginia has maintained a AAA rating since 1938, longer than any other state.
- Right-to-work law allows individuals the right to work regardless of membership in a labor union or organization.
- Corporate income tax rate of 6% has not been increased since 1972.
- Headquarters to 37 Fortune 1000 firms.
- Headquarters to 56 firms each with annual revenue over $1 billion.
- More than 21,400 high-tech establishments operate in Virginia.
- More than 700 internationally-owned businesses from 40 countries are located in Virginia.
- Ranks third among the 50 states as a recipient of federal R&D funds.
- Streamlined permitting process.
- Recruitment training programs to help new businesses become operational faster.
- Programs at little or no cost to help businesses increase international sales.

Career Readiness Certificate (06/30/2017-06/30/2018)

Virginia's Career Readiness Certificate (CRC) assists employers by certifying that a recipient possesses core skills in applied math, reading for information, and locating information. The CRC certification is based on established Workkeys® assessment tests. Virginia uses a three-tiered approach (bronze, silver, gold) to credentialing certificate holders that is based on the recipient's level of development skills.

Government and Taxes

Government

Prince William County has a County Executive and an eight-member Board of Supervisors. Manassas has a City Manager and a seven-member City Council. Manassas Park has a City Manager and a seven-member City Council.

All have a comprehensive plan and zoning and subdivision ordinances.

Manassas serves as the county seat. Dumfries, Haymarket, Occoquan, and Quantico are incorporated towns within the county.

Taxes

Localities in Virginia collect a 1% sales tax. They do not tax other items taxed at the State level.

Counties and cities in Virginia are separate taxing entities. Therefore, a company pays taxes to either a county or to a city.

If a company is located in a town, it pays town and county taxes except for utility taxes which are paid only to the town and the license tax which is paid only to the town unless town law permits the additional collection of a county tax.

Manufacturers pay real estate, machinery and tools, truck and automobile, utility, and sales taxes.

Nonmanufacturers pay real estate, tangible personal property, truck and automobile, utility, and sales taxes. They also may pay either a merchants' capital or a license tax.

Community Facilities

Prince William Hospital in Manassas is a 170-bed general medical and surgical facility offering a variety of services including emergency room, cardiac rehabilitation and oncology. Potomac Hospital is a 153-bed full service acute care community hospital in Woodbridge. Additional hospital care is available in Fairfax, Alexandria, and Washington, D.C. Four public health centers operate in Manassas and Woodbridge providing clinics and additional public health services.

Over 400 physicians and 150 dentists practice in the community.

Nursing home care is available in the Lake Ridge and Manassas areas.

The Prince William Library, through its four full-service facilities and its six mini libraries, serves residents of the county and the cities of Manassas and Manassas Park. The library circulates in excess of 1.5 million books, records, and cassettes each year. Campuses of Northern Virginia Community College at Manassas and Woodbridge provide additional libraries for the public.

Shopping opportunities in Prince William County are extensive. Numerous shops featuring antiques and crafts complement the large assortment of shopping malls and centers. One of the nation's largest malls and Virginia's number one tourist attraction, Potomac Mills, contains 240 stores under one roof and offers outlet prices on thousands of name brands. Manassas Mall offers over 90 shops and specialty stores. Tackett's Mill Specialty Center has more than 50 shops in a beautiful New England style setting complete with a working 18th century gristmill. Old Town Manassas offers over 25 quaint shops and restaurants in an historic setting.

Community Facilities

Over 100 places of worship are located throughout the community. Most leading Protestant denominations and the Roman Catholic faith are represented. Jewish synagogues are located in Dale City, Fort Belvoir and in adjacent Fairfax County. Moslem mosques are located in Manassas and Woodbridge. A Buddhist temple is located in Catlett.

The Mason Enterprise Center, a university-based economic development endeavor, recently opened at George Mason University's Prince William Campus. The Center serves as an incubator and counseling center for local businesses and specializes in the areas of small business services, government contracting, international business, entrepreneurship, technology ventures, and telework initiatives.

For small and start-up businesses, Mason Enterprise Center offers an Incubator/Accelerator Program that provides the services, office space, and support businesses need to get started. Offices are located at Bull Run Hall on the GMU Campus in Innovation@Prince William Technology Business Park.

The community is home to the Prince William Symphony Orchestra, Manassas Dance Company, more than 25 movie theaters, and numerous art galleries. Its proximity to Washington, D.C. affords residents easy access to a wide range of cultural and entertainment opportunities. Planning is underway for a performing arts center on the INNOVATION campus of George Mason University. This “La Scala” style opera house will be the home of numerous performing arts organizations and will offer a variety of performing arts experiences to the public.

Public recreation programs and classes are sponsored by both the county and cities. Public facilities encompass 73 ball fields, five outdoor swimming pools, two indoor pools, 29 tennis courts, 42 local parks, an indoor ice arena, and seven public golf courses. The Freedom Aquatic and Fitness Center is a state-of-the-art recreational facility jointly-funded and operated by Prince William County, the City of Manassas, and George Mason University. It offers an Olympic-style indoor pool and a variety of fitness opportunities to the citizens of Prince William County and Manassas.

The U.S. National Park Service administers the Manassas Battlefield Park and Prince William Forest Park. The battlefield was the site of two strategic battles of the Civil War and attracts thousands of visitors each year to the community. The 17,000-acre Prince William National Forest provides year-round hiking, camping and picnicking. The 400-acre Conway Robinson State Forest offers a site for forestry research and study and additional outdoor recreational facilities. The 508-acre Leesylvania Park offers hiking, boating, and a marina. Water and outdoor sportsmen will find the area attractive. Public and private marinas are located along the Potomac and Occoquan River shorelines. Numerous lakes and rivers boast an abundance of freshwater fish. Hunting for deer, wild turkey, and other small game is enjoyed in season. The county is popular with bicyclists who enjoy a variety of trails and roads available for their pursuits.

Prince William County is also home to professional baseball. The Potomac Nationals, Class A-Advanced affiliate of the Washington Nationals, play at Pfitzner Stadium in the County Recreational Complex.

The historic town of Occoquan provides residents and visitors with a glimpse of the 18th century. Self-guided walking tours are available to explore the streets of this national landmark village on the banks of the Occoquan River. Other notable attractions in the community include the Weems-Botts Museum in Dumfries; the National Museum of the Marine Corps in Quantico; and the Manassas Museum in Old Town Manassas.
