Career Readiness Certificate (06/30/2017-06/30/2018)

Virginia's Career Readiness Certificate (CRC) assists employers by certifying that a recipient possesses core skills in applied math, reading for information, and locating information. The CRC certification is based on established Workeys® assessment tests. Virginia uses a three-tiered approach (bronze, silver, gold) to credentialing certificate holders that is based on the recipient's level of development skills.

Government and Taxes

Government

Dinwiddie County has a County Administrator and a five-member Board of Supervisors.

The county has a comprehensive plan and zoning and subdivision ordinances.

Dinwiddie is the county seat. McKenney is the only incorporated town within the county.

Taxes

Localities in Virginia collect a 1% sales tax. They do not tax other items taxed at the State level.

Counties and cities in Virginia are separate taxing entities. Therefore, a company pays taxes to either a county or to a city.

If a company is located in a town, it pays town and county taxes except for utility taxes which are paid only to the town and the license tax which is paid only to the town unless town law permits the additional collection of a county tax.

Manufacturers pay real estate, machinery and tools, truck and automobile, utility, and sales taxes.

Nonmanufacturers pay real estate, tangible personal property, truck and automobile, utility, and sales taxes. They also may pay either a merchants' capital or a license tax.

Community Facilities

Southside Regional Medical Center in Petersburg is easily accessible to Dinwiddie County residents. This 468-bed acute care facility offers extensive medical facilities and services that include emergency, intensive and coronary care; diagnostic capabilities; and a school of nursing. County residents are also in close proximity to numerous medical facilities and services available throughout the Richmond metropolitan area. Richmond is home to the Virginia Commonwealth University Medical Center. This internationally renown medical center is a teaching and research hospital that offers the latest technology, services and facilities.

Four physicians and three dentists maintain practices in Dinwiddie County.

County residents utilize the Appomattox Regional Library System. This multi-jurisdictional library system circulates over 119,000 volumes. Branches of this library are located in the towns of McKenney and Dinwiddie. A bookmobile service is also provided to county residents.

Library facilities at the numerous colleges and universities located in the Richmond-Petersburg metropolitan area are also open to the public.

Residents have access to over 70 places of worship throughout Dinwiddie County and Petersburg. These places of worship represent the various Protestant denominations and the Roman Catholic and Jewish faiths.

Community Facilities

Over 75 stores dispersed throughout Dinwiddie County provide residents with their general retail and service needs. As part of the Richmond and Petersburg metropolitan area, county residents enjoy easy access to numerous regional malls and shopping centers.

A broad mix of recreational and cultural activities are available to Dinwiddie County residents. Lake Chesdin, a man-made lake fed by the Appomattox River, offers swimming and boating opportunities. Camping, picnicking and hiking is available at Pocahontas State Park in nearby Chesterfield County. The Fort Pickett area is a cooperative wildlife management area open to hunters in season. Hunting is plentiful throughout the county for small game, wild turkey, quail and deer. The numerous creeks, rivers and lakes in the area offer ample opportunity for fishing, boating and swimming.

There are 10 ball fields, 10 tennis courts, three marinas, and a public boat ramp in Dinwiddie County.

Golfing, tennis, swimming and other club activities can be found at Petersburg Country Club and Lee Park Country Club.

With its close proximity to Richmond and Petersburg, county residents can also take advantage of the many museums, historical sites, cultural events and sporting events that the metropolitan area has to offer. The Pamplin Park Civil War Site is a private foundation supporting the display of Civil War sites, and the National Park Service has a facility located at the Battle of Five Forks.
