
Smyth County, Virginia

Overview

Only a few locations can guarantee the right combination of resources that are crucial to your business's success. Virginia's premier location offers excellent domestic and international access. Centrally located on the U.S. East Coast, more than 47 percent of the U.S. population is within a day's drive, and our integrated transportation system of highways, railroads, airports and seaports ensures that you can reach every one of your markets efficiently. Close proximity to Washington, D.C. facilitates contact with policy makers and the federal government system.

Virginia continues to rank among America's leading states for business by CNBC and Forbes.com. Business-first values, easy access to markets, stable and competitive operating costs, and a talented workforce all drove Virginia to the top. This unique combination of assets has encouraged businesses to prosper here for more than 400 years. Like you, they searched the world over for that convergence of resources that would help ensure their prosperity. For them, their search ended here. Chances are yours will too.

- Programs at little or no cost to help businesses increase international sales.

Location

Smyth County is located in scenic southwestern Virginia within a quick 45-minute drive of the Tri-Cities Metropolitan Area of Bristol/Kingsport/Johnson City, Tennessee with almost 500,000 persons. Because of its geographic location in the Appalachian ridge and valley region, the county experiences four distinct and spectacularly beautiful seasons with moderate temperatures prevailing.

Roanoke is 100 miles north; Richmond, the state capital, is 275 miles northeast; and Washington, D.C. is 343 miles northeast of the county. Interstate 81, which bisects the county, provides easy access to I-77, I-26, and I-64.

Career Readiness Certificate (06/30/2017-06/30/2018)

Virginia’s Career Readiness Certificate (CRC) assists employers by certifying that a recipient possesses core skills in applied math, reading for information, and locating information. The CRC certification is based on established Workeys® assessment tests. Virginia uses a three-tiered approach (bronze, silver, gold) to credentialing certificate holders that is based on the recipient’s level of development skills.

Government and Taxes

Government

Smyth County has a County Administrator and a seven-member Board of Supervisors.

The county has a comprehensive plan, a subdivision ordinance, and a zoning ordinance.

Marion is the county seat. Other incorporated towns within the county are Chilhowie and Saltville.

Taxes

Localities in Virginia collect a 1% sales tax. They do not tax other items taxed at the State level.

Counties and cities in Virginia are separate taxing entities. Therefore, a company pays taxes to either a county or to a city.

If a company is located in a town, it pays town and county taxes except for utility taxes which are paid only to the town and the license tax which is paid only to the town unless town law permits the additional collection of a county tax.

Manufacturers pay real estate, machinery and tools, truck and automobile, utility, and sales taxes.

Nonmanufacturers pay real estate, tangible personal property, truck and automobile, utility, and sales taxes. They also may pay either a merchants' capital or a license tax.

Community Facilities

The Smyth County Community Hospital in Marion is a 176-bed not-for-profit primary care facility offering state of the art medical treatment. The hospital has a 24-hour emergency unit, an intensive and coronary care unit, a progressive care unit, a surgical unit and a radiology department. Medical services offered by the hospital include obstetrics and maternity care, a same day surgery program, a lifeline emergency response system for the elderly and various outpatient services.

The Lifetime Wellness Center in Marion is a state of the art fitness center that meets the needs of individuals of all ages and backgrounds. The Center offers a full schedule of programs and classes, and contains numerous exercise machines, an indoor track, free weights, as well as a spacious all purpose basketball court.

Smyth County has two nursing home facilities. One, the Francis Marion Manor adjoins the Smyth County Community Hospital. This facility's nearness to the hospital is especially convenient for those residents who require medical testing or treatment. The other, Valley Health Care Center is a 120-bed facility located in Chilhowie. This facility offers intermediate and skilled care for their residents.

Community Facilities

Mental health care services are also available in the county. Southwestern Virginia Mental Health Institute, located in Marion, provides psychiatric care, alcoholism treatment programs and residential treatment of the emotionally disturbed. The Mount Rogers Community Health and Mental Retardation Services Board provide additional services for adults and children with mental and physical disabilities.

There are 55 physicians and 15 dentists who practice in the county.

The Smyth-Bland Regional Library operates two branches and a bookmobile service in the county. The regional library circulates almost 78,000 volumes in Smyth County, including the main library in Marion and the Saltville branch. These libraries offer a wide selection of periodicals, videotapes, DVDs, records, and cassettes.

There are 126 places of worship representing all Protestant and Catholic faiths. A Jewish synagogue can be found 40 miles away in Bristol.

Four shopping centers with over a hundred retail outlets serve area residents. In addition to these establishments, numerous shopping opportunities are available in the Marion, Saltville and Chilhowie central business districts.

Lifestyle

Numerous recreational opportunities are available to Smyth County residents and visitors. Hungry Mother State Park, the county's most popular attraction, offers a variety of outdoor activities. Visitors can swim, fish and boat on the 108-acre lake; camp at one of the 80 available sites; or rent one of the 20 cabins; view the spectacular trails on guided hikes or horseback; and learn about the park's wildlife and plant life and early settlers at educational programs held at the Visitors Center. Recent improvements at the park include an enlarged restaurant, year-round accommodations, and meeting space at the Henlock Haven Conference Center; and a lodge available for small group retreats.

Additional hiking, camping, picnicking, swimming, horseback riding and fishing, plus hunting opportunities are available in the Mount Rogers National Recreation Area.

The Davis Valley Winery and Vineyards offers residents award winning wines, and provides tours and wine tastings on a regular basis. An amphitheater is also located on the premises, where residents can enjoy several open-air music festivals that are scheduled throughout the year.

Several festivals and celebrations are held in the county in the summer and fall. The Independence Day Celebration in Marion is highlighted by a Chili Championship and Saltville hosts Salt-Making Week preceding the Labor Day Celebration. Other events include an apple festival in Chilhowie, an arts and crafts festival at Hungry Mother State Park, and a fair and horse show at Rich Valley.

The Historic Lincoln Theatre gives residents a chance to view spectacular performances and concerts, and regularly showcases productions from the Barter Theatre. The Theatre prides itself on supporting and highlighting the culture and folklore of the Appalachians and its people, and is home to the popular "Song of the Mountains" music series.

Area residents can enjoy golf at an 18-hole course at the Holston Hills Country Club in Marion and 9-hole courses in Saltville and Chilhowie. Tennis is also available at numerous public and private courts throughout the county.
